

CASE STUDY

Ship Happens Expansion

New Orleans, Louisiana

www.taschinc.com

THE GOAL

Ship Happens, a successful print and shipping retailer in the heart of downtown New Orleans, had outgrown their original space. To keep up with customer demand and streamline operations, they acquired the adjacent unit and brought Tasch in to handle the renovation.

PROJECT OVERVIEW

Industry: Retail

Architect: Drift Design + Build

Scope of Work:

Demolition of existing walls to create seamless connection between the original and new spaces

HVAC Upgrades to ensure comfort and efficiency across the expanded footprint

Finish Matching to preserve the look and feel of the original and ensure a cohesive customer experience

Challenges:

Working in an active retail environment with minimal disruptions to daily operations

Matching existing finishes with limited product availability and aged materials

Tight downtown space with limited access for equipment and materials

Budget: $28,000

Time Line: 30 Days
